

Please do not go backwards and vote to let banks in Indiana call people who are on the do not call list. I have arthritis and it physically hurts me to answer the phone. It is very distressing when it is not someone I want to speak with on the other end of the line.